#adulting- Greg Stager

Yeah....somewhere along the way everyone has to grow up. It's a calendar thing....one day a kid, the next an adult. So, with that terror fresh in your mind, it's time to start learning junk like how to fix your car, how to hang a picture, how to fix a leaky pipe and other handy stuff at home. We may also spend a week or two on how to make your way in the adult world. And yep...we'll also talk about stuff you want to talk about!

9th-12th Grade

10:00am

Introduction to Drama - Maureen Blada

This class will introduce students to the art of creative expression in the form of acting/drama. Topics will include: Understanding basic stage direction, group games and exercises, pantomime, memorization, voice Projection, monologues, improvisation and story telling!

Journalism – Susan Truman and Nina Galanti

This year's Journalism class will include instruction and hands-on experience in producing our school's Spotlight newsletter, Instagram account, and yearbook. By the completion of the class, students will have received instruction in the basics of visual communication, photography, design, interviewing skills, and journalistic writing. They will have had substantial experience worthy of inclusion on a resume or college application. Class time will involve considerable group work and students will be expected to actively participate. For dedicated students who wish to put in additional work outside of class, high school credits may be earned. Bringing a laptop and/or digital camera is strongly recommended. (Class is limited to 12 students. Students in the Journalism class will be required to make a year-long commitment for both hours of Academy Day.)
